A Prayer for Protection in Hurricane Season

"Christ in the Storm on the Sea of Galilee"
Ludolf Backhuysen, German, 1695

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of Your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your Son's command when He calmed the stormy waters and delivered the disciples from fear and harm.

During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Lord, for Your mercy is without end. Spare us from tragedies like those of the past and keep us safe in Your loving care.

O Virgin Mother, Star of the Sea, we seek your powerful help. Plead for us with your Son that we might be spared all harm, whether natural or made by human hand, and walk safely in His footsteps until we reach our heavenly home.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us!

Thank you, Father Miles!

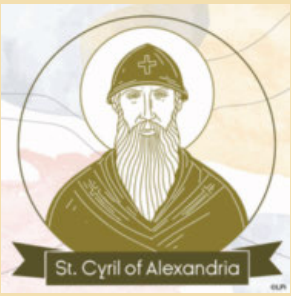
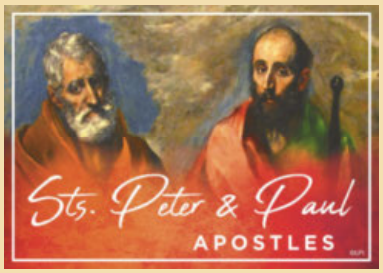
This Sunday: 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time



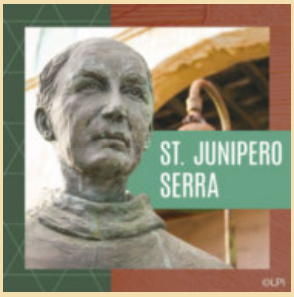
Monday: St. Cyril of Alexandria, Bishop and Doctor of the Church: Cyril, recognized as a great teacher of the Church, began his career as archbishop of Alexandria, Egypt. His importance for theology lies in his championing of the cause of orthodoxy against the heresy of Nestorius, who taught that in Christ there were two persons, one human and one divine. Nestorius implied that the humanity of Christ was a mere disguise. Presiding as the pope's representative at the Council of Ephesus in 431, Cyril condemned Nestorianism and proclaimed Mary the "God-bearer"—the mother of the one Person who is truly God and truly human. In the confusion that followed, Cyril was deposed and imprisoned for three months, after which he was welcomed back to Alexandria.

Tuesday: Weekday



Wednesday: Sts. Peter and Paul, Apostles: Peter and Paul are often spoken of as the two men most responsible for spreading the Christian message in the days of the early church. Legend has it that they were executed on the same day under the command of Emperor Nero and buried in Rome. (Historical accounts dispute this). Since he was a Roman citizen, Paul was beheaded while Peter was crucified upside down because he said he was not worthy to die in the same manner as Christ. As early as 258 AD there is evidence of an already-lengthy tradition that the feast day of both saints were celebrated on the same day. In a sermon in the year 395, St. Augustine of Hippo said of Peter and Paul, Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so, we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith.

Thursday: The First Martyrs of the Holy Roman Church: These "proto-martyrs" of Rome were the first Christians persecuted en masse by the Emperor Nero in the year 64, before the martyrdom of Saints Peter and Paul. Nero was widely believed to have caused the fire that burned down much of Rome in the same year. He blamed the fire on the Christians and put them to death, many by crucifixion, some were fed to the wild animals, others were tied to posts and lit up as human torches. These martyrs were called the "Disciples of the Apostles" and their firmness in the face of death was a powerful testimony that led to many conversions in the early Roman Church.



Friday: St. Junipero Serra, Priest: Fr. Serra was born in Spain in 1713 and at 16 entered the Franciscan order. He was expected to spend his life in Spain as a teacher of theology, but at the age of 37, and in spite of poor health, he volunteered to become a missionary in the New World. He worked first in Mexico and then in California where he founded nine of the area's 21 missions. For this he is known as the Father of California's Spanish Missions. While in California, Serra introduced agriculture and irrigation systems even as he converted the Indians to Christianity. He walked or rode for more than 24,000 miles in his missionary work in spite of a leg injury that bothered him constantly. Father Serra died in 1784 at the age of 70 at Mission San Carlos de Borromeo. He was buried under the sanctuary floor. He was canonized by Pope Francis in 2015.
